Appendix 1
Legal References

Legislation is designed to protect customers, businesses, and employees. Familiarity with legislation is important to ensure that all personnel working in liquor premises comply with the law. It is your responsibility as doorpersons, in conjunction with owners and managers, to comply with all legislation associated with liquor sales and service to keep up-to-date on any changes. You can gain information and remain knowledgeable about current legislation by reviewing each of the following documents in detail as it pertains to your establishment.

Casino Terms and Conditions and Operating Guidelines

Criminal Code of Canada

Gaming and Liquor Act

Gaming and Liquor Regulation

Licensee Handbook
